A Complete Guide to Nonprofit Fundraising Events

Picture this: You're standing in the middle of a vibrant room, surrounded by people who share your passion for change. Laughter, conversation, and a common purpose fill the air.

Events go beyond just having a good time (although that's important too!). They are a sure way to rally the community, spread awareness, and bring in funds for your nonprofit. In this guide, we'll tap into the exciting world of nonprofit events, providing you with strategies and tips to make your next event a successful one. Whether you're a seasoned event planner or just dipping your toes into the fundraising world buckle up and get ready to turn your vision into reality.

The Sedona Project, a Center for Exploring Wellness, is designed to create a safe and judgment-free environment for families to explore connections, wellness, and healing. They accomplish this by providing one-on-one peer support combined with a variety of group activities designed to cultivate a connection to self and others. They're just getting started, and 100% of services are administered through volunteers. If you are interested in volunteering to provide peer support or lead a group wellness activity, please complete the application at <https://thesedonaproject.org/>

Where Hope Grows Campaign

In an effort to increase well-being to live longer and better, Casa de Esperanza (Casa) has partnered with Blue Zones Project-Yuba Sutter and the UC Master Gardeners of Yuba Sutter and launched the Where Hope Grows campaign. The goal is to raise $25,000 to build a Healing and Therapeutic Garden for survivors of domestic and sexual violence in Yuba, Sutter, and Colusa County. Information & Sponsorship Packet
